

A Course on Sowing Seeds of Social Beauty

About the Course

Note to Participants

This free on-line course, which consists of 18 PowerPoint presentations, is entitled A Course on Sowing Seeds of Social Beauty. The course is based on a book, Sowing Seeds of Social Beauty, which was published in January 2026. The full manuscript of the book is posted on my website (www.notesfromthesocialclinic.org) where all 54 Chapters of the book may be downloaded and read for free. Below are the front and back covers of the book:

The Course and the book are primarily about:

Eventually, all 18 presentations will be posted on my website. Some of the presentations (e.g., Presentation 1) will be posted in all three of the following formats:

- As a Video and Audio Presentation in which my voiced comments about each slide are recorded over each slide---thus, mimicking a live PowerPoint presentation.
- As a Regular PowerPoint Presentation without any voice-over (audio) component.
- As a Slide-by-Slide Transcript---a verbatim written documentation of what I say about each slide.

Other presentations will be posted only in the Regular PowerPoint (PPT) Presentation and the Slide-by-Slide Transcript formats.

In the absence of a Video-Audio version of a presentation, the participant in the course can print off the Slide-by-Slide Transcript, access the Regular PowerPoint Presentation, and read what I would say about each slide, while manually clicking from one slide to the next.

Although the presentations are listed in a recommended order, they may be viewed or read in any order that best suits participants in the course.

I anticipate posting additional presentations, over and above the 18 that are listed.

Thank you for your interest in “Sowing Seeds of Social Beauty.”
